Happy Resurrection Day,

Cornerstone family! Be encouraged! God is doing a work among us for which He alone will receive the glory. The same power that catapulted our Lord Jesus from death to life is the power that saves us now and forever!

Be sure to check the website daily, cornerstonehemet.org. You'll find:

- Sermons/messages
- Devotionals
- C-Kids activities & lessons
- Pastors' Corner
- Prayer request submission
- Giving opportunities
- Sign up for newsletters, etc.

An update of our church schedule and other important info is being emailed weekly.

The church office remains open Tuesday to Thursday from 8am to 4pm to help in any way and to receive offerings or items to share. Phone calls and emails are welcome, too!

Christ the LORD is risen today! Alleluia!

Sons of men and angels say, Alleluia!

Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!

Sing, ye heav'ns, and earth reply: Alleluia!

Lives again our glorious King, Alleluia!

Where, O death, is now thy sting? Alleluia!

Dying once He all doth save, Alleluia!

Where they victory, O grave? Alleluia!

*He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said...

EASTER

HIS GLORIOUS RESURRECTION

Ephesians 5:1-21

SERMON OUTLINE

Ephesians 5:1-21

1. The Light of Christ exposes our deeds, lights the way to clear obedience, and helps us to appreciate and value our relationship with God.
2. Focusing on being thankful and grateful creates fertile soil where sin struggles to take root.
3. Our daily life of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs is the correct environment for the Holy Spirit, and being filled with the Spirit is better than any temporary thing we can be filled with.

STUDY GUIDE

April 12, 2020

Ephesians 5:1-21

1. In Ephesians 5:1, we are told to be imitators of God. Then it gives us Christ's example of how to do that. This is a difficult example to apply. Please discuss what that looks like in our lives.
2. Ephesians 5:4 tells us we should not have "course jesting" or in the NIV "course joking" in our talk. One way this happens in the work place is where instead of directly approaching a problem, a joking comment with an obvious message is laid upon the offender. "Nice of you to finally show up!" is used instead of "Can you tell me why you are having a problem arriving on time?" As you can see, the second approach requires care and concern to correct a problem. "Jabs and barbs" are not to be part of our conversation. How do you do in this area?
3. Ephesians 5:8 tells us "you are Light in the Lord; walk as children of Light." How are you Light in the Lord? The children's song "This little light of mine" may help you with an answer.
4. Ephesians 5:13 tell us that "all things become visible when they are exposed by the light." Do you notice that some people change their talk or actions when you are around? Do lost people know that you are light?
5. Ephesians 5:18 tell us we are to be "filled with the Spirit." What is something you can do this week, that you don't usually do, that can help you be filled with the Spirit?
