Ephesians 5:22-33

The theme of Sunday's message was to remind us that obeying God's order brings order to our own lives.

1. Give some examples from Scripture that prove the truth of this proposition—both positively and negatively.
2. In your marriage, how have you found the principles here to work to the advantage of your relationship and to each of you in particular?
3. What ways have you followed to achieve the kind of obedience that Paul enjoins? What have been the hardest lessons you have learned along the way?
4. Based on what the Spirit has directed Paul to say in this passage, what do you need to do to do a better job?
5. How can living out the truth of this text help other couples?
6. If you are single, what principles of conduct can you include in your life to help you to mature in your walk with the Lord Jesus?

The cross upon which Jesus died,
Is a shelter in which we can hide;
And its grace so free is sufficient for me,
And deep is its fountain—as wide as the sea.

The hand of my Savior is strong,
And the love of my Savior is long;
Through sunshine or rain, through loss or in gain,
The blood flows from Calv'ry
to cleanse ev'ry stain.
