Matthew 11

This man of God, John the Baptist, is most likely in prison right now about to be decapitated by a wicked ruler. [See Matthew 14:1-12] In this dark season of the soul, John sends some disciples to question whether or not Jesus is the coming one or if they seek another.

- 1) Jesus loved John. They were cousins; their moms would visit each other. John baptized Jesus and was the one who prepared the way. What was Jesus' opinion of John? [See verse 7-19]

- 2) But John's disciples didn't hear verse 7-19 before they departed. What was the answer from Jesus which John's disciples went back to tell him? [see verse 4-6]

- 3) These words reference the prophecies written from Isaiah 29:18-19. Why would this be significant to answering John's question?

- 4) What does this teach us about true rest and true encouragement? Do we learn a difference between resting in the encouragement of the Word and promises of God versus resting in our self worth and others' opinions of us?

All-Church Family World-wide Ministry Event TODAY!

3:00-5:00pm. Come to enjoy some family time with two special couples with whom we partner in ministry in other parts of the world. Bring an international dessert to share. Enter through the lobby. Childcare for 3 months, to 5 years.

Encouragement Tree is waiting for your notes of encouragement to our two visiting missionaries. Pick up a tag, write a note of encouragement for Sam & Megan and for Darren & Janelle then put it on the tree. We can also be a blessing by giving a donation toward their needs before they head back to ministry. Visit the display in the lobby today.

This Thursday, log onto the YouTube channel of Beaumont Calvary Chapel for a night of live worship with guest artists Serhii and our Cornerstone praise team.

The Cornerstone family is invited to share in remembering Jackie Saville this Saturday, July 18, at 1pm in the Worship Center.
