The book of JOSHUA

Remembering Past Victories

Joshua 12:1, 6-8, 31

3 reasons why should we remember past victories.

1. Past victories encourage us to _____.

 - It was very normal for God's people to remember the past. They had to practice it because it reminded them of their Almighty God. Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 11-14.
 - It keeps us _____. We know that all we possess is because of Him, not because of us.
 - It helps us to _____ with God. It helps us remember that we are not independent.

2. Past victories encourage us to continue _____ that we need to overcome throughout our life to _____.

 - The foreign kings _____.
 - The nation couldn't _____ the Land if the foreign kings were there.
 - They didn't fully possess the land because they _____.

3. Past victories encourage us to wait for our Jesus Messiah who will completely overcome in the future.

 - God's people knew that one day Messiah would come and become their King forever. That's why King David was an image of the coming Messiah. He could defeat those kings of the land.
 - Jesus died for us and He is fighting with us. One day He will establish His kingdom forever.

Conclusion:

_____ God's victories of the past,
 _____ to fight and serve God (because it is not yet the end) and _____ for your King.
