

DEFINITION: The gospel is the good news of the Triune God restoring all things to Himself in creation and re-creation. Specifically, it is the revelation of Jesus as the perfect God-man who was sent by the Father to bear the wrath against sin and reconcile sinners to himself through his sufficient sacrifice. After his crucifixion, He rose from the grave proving his victory over death and sin and then ascended to the right hand of the Father where his rule and reign are exercised. All who confess Jesus as their risen Lord, put their trust in His finished work, believe in His bodily resurrection, and follow His life and teachings, will be made righteous, receive the Holy Spirit, be adopted into His family, and be delivered from the penalty, power and presence of sin to forever enjoy union with God.
