Joshua Chapter I

September 27, 2020

Truth Point: We learned that Joshua had to prepare for battle. He knew that this would be a long series of battles to take over many small kingdoms, fortified cities, and powerful armies.

Reflection Points:

1. God required obedience from Joshua by telling him to specifically do something in Joshua 1:7&8. Does this commandment apply to you? If so, what do you need to change which will help you obey God?
2. God tells Joshua three times in the first chapter of Joshua to be “strong and courageous.” Why did God repeat this statement three times?
3. Why did Joshua give the people three days (verse 11) before entering the promised land? Is there something in this advice that we need to follow?
4. What attributes of Joshua can you relate with? Are you ready to lead, if called? Are you ready to claim God’s promises to those around you?
5. God promises to be with Joshua in Joshua 1. Is there a place in the New Testament where God promises to be with you?

Action Points:

1. At the conclusion of Joshua 1, the people make a commitment to follow. How strong are your commitments? Do you need to “re-commit” to your service to the Lord?
2. Is there a commandment to Joshua that you find overwhelming? What is that command and why does it trouble you?
